Nothing new to report

Christina added that although we haven't had volunteers for games or other functions; however, we've had student volunteers and Jennifer, Spirit Wear Chair, who delivered THS band spirit wear. She still has some additional items for sale.

Treasurer (Scott Luers)

- Checking balance is at $22,324.61

- Money market account is at $28,363.68

- We've had a little over half of families make their installment payments - checks made out to TTBP but sent to THS.

- Next registration fee is due Nov. 13.

Mr. Lawson:

- Thank you to those who have already volunteered your time this year. This year looks different; however, I really appreciate the fact that our organization is focusing our efforts and making a positive impact. Thank you for doing that.

- The effort that the students are putting in - it's really cool to see the community they've built. I know they're stressed, but they're working hard to make band, band.
- We are still shooting for a virtual concert - shooting for a target date of Dec.8 (Tuesday).
- Tri-M (music honor society) starting their new membership drive - has a meeting on Wednesday with info coming out soon after. Students are trying to come up with a few outreach opportunities, including writing letters to the York Convalescent Center (normally - the students would play for the center).
- We have some upcoming clinics from VCU.
- BAND UPDATE: We do not have a timeline for welcoming students back yet - no additional info at this point. Hopefully, we'll have some kind of in-person marching band season at some point, but I'll keep you posted.

Hospitality Chair/THS Band Tiger Paw Print rep (Debra Fowlkes)

Paw painting is finished except for one paw - cannot get in contact with the family, and the vehicle is parked over the paw.

President (Christina Zetterwall)

- We're trying to keep lines of communication open - hopefully we're not bombarding you with too much info ...

Meeting adjourned: 7:27 p.m.
